Acting Headteacher: Mrs W Wilson

27th May 2022

Dear Parents,

RE- Acting Headteacher

At the end of another busy half-term, today we said a fond farewell to Martin Winward as he leaves St Anne's School, after six and half years, for his new headship in the UK. I am thrilled to say that until the substantive post is appointed to, I am delighted and honoured to have been given the opportunity to take on the Acting Headship. After 6 years of working alongside of Martin as Deputy Headteacher at our school, I am very proud of everything the staff team and pupils at St Anne's have achieved in recent years and in this interim period, before the new substantive Headteacher is appointed, I am determined to do everything within my power to maintain the high standards and strong reputation that St Anne's School now has.

The recruitment round for the permanent Headteacher takes place at beginning of June so we expect to find ourselves in a stable position in terms of leadership staffing soon thereafter.

In the meantime, please be reassured that your child's education will remain at the heart of every decision I make and I will endeavour to ensure that St Anne's school remains a place where all children are safe, happy, excited to learn and supported to succeed.

For the last half-term, we will be joined and ably supported in the leadership team by new staff members Deborah Dix as Acting Headteacher as well as Ali Morgan as supply Yr 1 & 2 teacher and SLT member. I am excited to report that a wide range of trips and experiences have been organised for our pupils and after such a long period of restrictions, I will look forward to seeing them thrive from the wider enrichment this will bring.

I hope that I can continue to count on your support as we move towards the end of this academic year. Please feel free to contact me at school on the email or numbers above and as usual, your child's class teacher or form teacher with any daily needs or enquiries.

Have a lovely half-term break and I hope the sun keeps shining for all of us throughout the holiday period.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs W Wilson

Acting Headteacher
